Charges of organising the supply of substandard military clothing to the Ministry of Defence (losses of over UAH 1.16 billion)

Indictment in court · period: ~2023 · made public: 17 Jan 2024

Alleged: ₴1,167,000,000

Pre-trial investigation body: State Bureau of Investigation

Charges: ч. 5 ст. 190 КК України, ч. 1 ст. 255 КК України

According to the SBI, companies controlled by a Lviv businessman, which had previously been engaged in construction and had no production capacity, in 2023 concluded contracts with the Ministry of Defence for the supply of military clothing worth over UAH 1.8 billion and delivered clothing worth almost UAH 1.2 billion which, according to expert examinations, did not meet technical requirements. On 17 January 2024 the businessman and members of the group were served notices of suspicion of creating a criminal organisation and fraud under martial law (Article 190(5), Article 255 of the Criminal Code); at that time the SBI estimated the damage at over UAH 934 million. On 16 January 2025 the indictment was sent to court; losses to the state — UAH 1 billion 167 million (this amount is entered in the record). The SBI does not name him; according to the media, investigators consider Ihor Hrynkevych the organiser. As of 3 October 2026 the progress of the trial has not been verified. There is no verdict.
