Customs officer's mother-in-law's apartment in the “Frantsuzkyi Kvartal” residential complex for USD 150,000

Journalistic investigation · period: ~2018 · made public: 17 Feb 2020

Alleged: US$150,000

According to Bihus.Info, in the summer of 2018 a two-room apartment in the Frantsuzkyi Kvartal residential complex in central Kyiv, with a market value of about USD 150 thousand (the article headline says “for 4 million” hryvnias), was registered to the 70-year-old mother-in-law of Andrii Khomiak, then deputy and later acting head of the Energy Customs Office. Journalists reported that the mother-in-law is a pensioner and former teacher who over the past 10 years had no income capable of explaining the purchase; the customs officer's own salary according to his declarations is UAH 9–18 thousand per month. Khomiak declined to answer, suggesting a written request. No official proceedings are named in the sources; this is a journalistic investigation, no official proceedings have been registered (according to available data).

Two apartments and a car registered to the customs officer's mother

Journalistic investigation · period: ~2015–2016 · made public: 19 Jan 2017

Alleged: US$250,000

Bihus.Info reported in 2017, and recalled in 2020, that shortly before retirement Andrii Khomiak's mother (a former tax official) had a new Kia Sorento crossover (about USD 40 thousand) registered in her name, in which journalists repeatedly recorded the customs officer himself; she also became the owner of a one-room apartment in a new business-class building (about USD 60 thousand), allegedly received as a gift, and bought an apartment of over 100 sq m in the Frantsuzkyi Kvartal residential complex (at least USD 150 thousand). The video puts the total value at USD 250 thousand, which, according to the journalists' calculation, equals her salary for 20 years. According to the 2017 article, the customs officer did not mention his use of the car in his declaration. Khomiak provided no explanation. No official proceedings are named in the sources; this is a journalistic investigation, no official proceedings have been registered (according to available data).
