Use of apartments in Pechersk registered to a relative of the wife, and undeclared jewellery

Journalistic investigation · period: 2019 · made public: 11 Aug 2025

Alleged: US$350,000

According to a Bihus.Info investigation, the prosecutor declares the right to use two apartments (54.3 and 101 m²) and a parking space in a Kyiv residential complex in Pechersk, owned by his wife's grandmother — a pensioner from Volyn Oblast; the journalists estimate the two apartments together at about USD 350 thousand (the episode amount is the journalists' estimate, not the transaction price). According to the prosecutor, the relative sold an old apartment in Kyiv and invested the funds in new ones; from a register extract, the journalists established that she had received that apartment as a gift a month before the sale. In addition, the prosecutor's wife posed on a boutique's social media with watches resembling a Rolex Datejust and a Cartier (at least USD 8 thousand each) and a ring resembling a Cartier (about USD 11 thousand), which are not in the declaration; the prosecutor said they were copies from China; after the request, the photos disappeared. This is a journalistic investigation: no criminal proceedings have been registered.
