Charges of illegally seizing the state residence "Mezhyhiria" (over UAH 500 million in losses)

On trial · period: ~2002—2013 · made public: 28 Jul 2021

Alleged: ₴500,000,000

Pre-trial investigation body: National Anti-Corruption Bureau of Ukraine
Proceedings: 42015000000002833
Charges: ч. 5 ст. 191 КК України, ч. 3 ст. 209 КК України

According to NABU and SAPO, the former President of Ukraine together with his son in the 2000s removed the state residence complex «Mezhyhiria» (a land plot of 104.61 ha, buildings, structures, property of the «Pushcha-Vodytsia» complex) from state ownership for his own benefit: in 2007 the complex's property was exchanged for non-residential buildings of a private firm, the value of the residence, according to investigators, was artificially understated, and the property subsequently came under the control of a controlled LLC. According to official NABU data (2021), the damage to the state exceeds UAH 500 million; TI Ukraine cites an estimate of damage exceeding UAH 540 million (the episode amount is UAH 500 million per the official source). Notice of suspicion was served in 2021, and the investigation was conducted in absentia; on 7 October 2021 the HACC chose detention in custody as the pre-trial restraint. On 6 December 2022 the indictment was sent to court, and since 9 December 2022 the case (No. 991/6136/22) has been heard by the HACC; as of April 2026, according to TI Ukraine, examination of the defence's evidence is ongoing. Official announcements do not give the name («former President of Ukraine»); the name is reported by ZN.UA and TI Ukraine. There is no verdict in this case.
